Institutional Quality Assurance Policy (2012)

The Report

The D. Y. Patil Education Society (Deemed University) achieved deemed to be university status in 2005 u/s 3 of the UGC Act 1956 vide Notification No. F.9-26/2004-U dtd. 01-09-2005.

To strengthen and enhance its quality assurance processes, the University determined to prepare its Institutional Quality Assurance Policy. To this end, in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell, it has constituted a Committee consisting of

1. Prof. Dr. S. H. Pawar — Vice-Chancellor
2. Prof. Dr. Ashalata D. Patil — Head of Department, Anatomy
3. Prof. Dr. M. M. Sabnis — Head of Department, Ophthalmology
4. Shri. V. V. Bhosale — Registrar

The Committee has undertaken the detailed and painstaking processes of absorbing the current ethos of the University, its Vision and Mission Statement, its Motto "Knowledge is Power" and meeting with teaching and non-teaching staff and other members of the Management.

After several deliberations and discussions, the Committee has presented on 6th December 2012 the Institutional Quality Assurance Policy 2012 to the University.

Quality Matters

Quality Policy aims to provide motivation, direction and guidance for all steps taken in the efforts to achieve, improve and sustain quality.

The processes, practices and anticipated results of the Institutional Quality Assurance Policy include:

- To provide quality education that enables graduates to be competitive at national and international platforms.
- To provide holistic development of students for efficient and effective functioning in the task of nation building and service to humanity.
- To explore, adopt, elaborate and inculcate latest practices in teaching-learning and health care within the institution to meet expectations of society
- To contribute to world-class research and knowledge generation activities through establishment of state-of-the-art research facilities, promotion of research, publications and patents and recognition of efforts and outcomes in this direction.
