

FACULTY FEEDBACK FROM FRESH ALUMNI
D Y PATIL EDUCATION SOCIETY DEEMED UNIVERSITY, KOLHAPUR

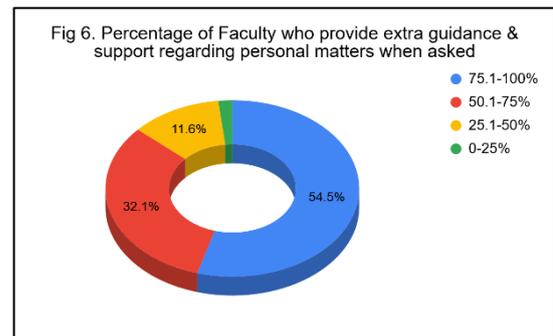

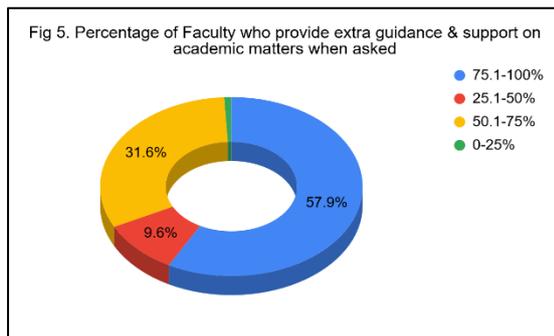

Feedback from alumni was taken on different aspects of their university experience.

Majority of graduating students acknowledged that faculty implement what they teach in classroom about patient management (93.8% faculty) and about ward behaviour and patient empathy (93% faculty).

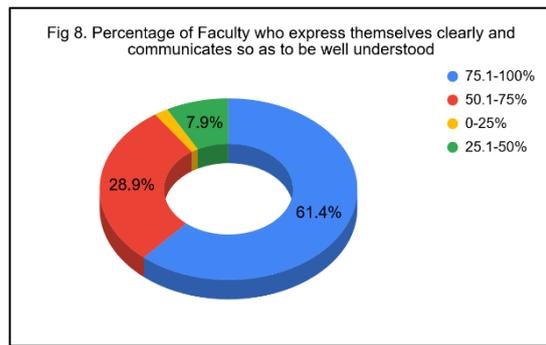

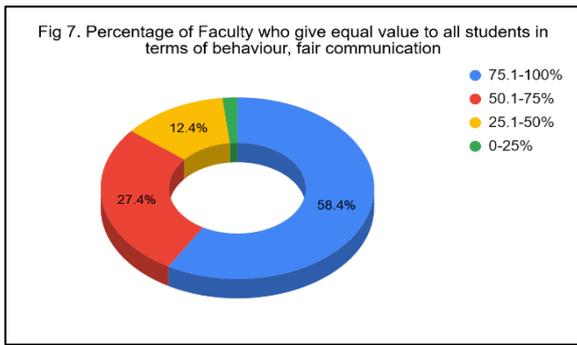

Majority of alumni expressed the view that 86.8% of faculty consider patient's personal situation during communication, examination and treatment. 89.5% of faculty were acknowledged to respect the dignity and self-respect of all students.

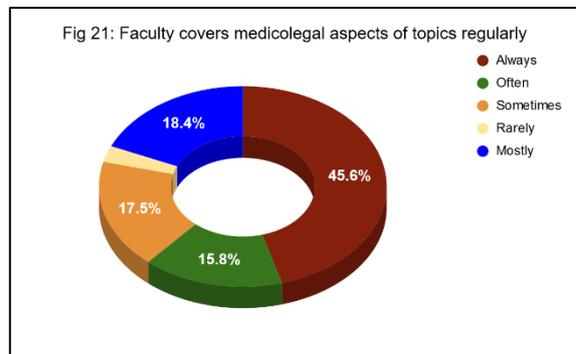

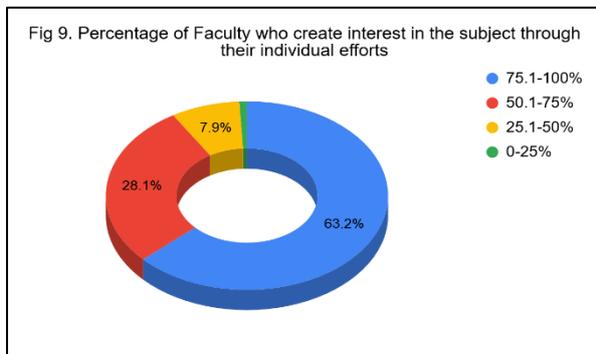

Based on alumni, majority of faculty provide extra guidance and support on both academic matters (89.5%) and on personal matters (85.6%) when asked.

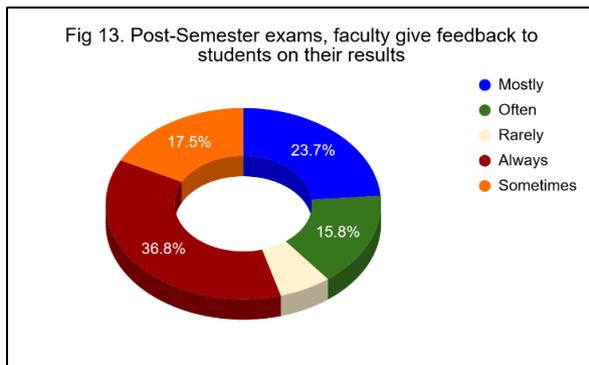

FACULTY FEEDBACK FROM FRESH ALUMNI
D Y PATIL EDUCATION SOCIETY DEEMED UNIVERSITY, KOLHAPUR

Alumni reported that majority faculty give equal value to all students in terms of behaviour and communication (85.8% faculty) and express themselves clearly (90.3%).

Alumni (91.3%) reported that majority faculty create interest in subject through their individual efforts and cover medicolegal aspects of topics either mostly or always (64%) and often (15.8%).

60.5% of alumni reported that faculty give feedback always or mostly to students post semester exams and 15.8% reported that feedback is given often.