

SDG 2030 GOAL: 3 – Good Health and well-being

Metric 3.3.4

The high proportion of health science learners indicates that knowledge of sexual and reproductive health is part of the curriculum of the majority of the student population. However, the university provides services that promote and provide access to students in this regard.

1. Family Planning OPD – this provides confidential, and contemporary support and care to students needing the services on contraception, sexuality, marital matters, and pregnancy care. The OPD functions as per the SOP prepared, providing education as well as care.
2. Psychologist – a trained qualified psychologist is experienced in matters of providing support and therapy to students with gender identity concerns.
3. HPV Vaccine awareness and provision – the university facilitates the HPV vaccine program, and works to increase the awareness of students as well as stakeholders on the prevention of cervical cancer and care to be taken for sexual awareness.
4. Integrated Counselling and Testing Centre (ICTC) provides for HIV and AIDS awareness, testing with full confidentiality as per the government and NACO norms. Students are oriented to this facility and explained access to this if required.
5. ART – the Anti-Retroviral Therapy centre supports the ICTC with provision of ART for students and also other patients.

The university engages in various activities apart from orientation (induction) and curricular activities to acquaint and support student needs in sexual and reproductive health.

Policy and Initiatives for Student Sexual & Reproductive Health

The D Y Patil Education Society Deemed to be University, Kolhapur is a center of higher education, in as much as to say, the learners are in a vulnerable age group with regards to sexual and reproductive health. Appropriate and accurate information on the subject, and to their concerns is challenged both by surfeit and surplus of information available. Cultural taboos, traditional beliefs, family background and individual attitudes, contrast with the WhatsApp University, large volume and depth of information on the net, and anonymity of social platforms. Hence the significant and imperative need to ensure that correct information and support is available in a contextual, confidential, clear and non-judgmental manner that allows the learner to make informed decisions about his/her sexual and reproductive health.

Policy Statement:

The D Y Patil Education Society Deemed to be University recognizes the need for accurate scientific information promoting healthy and responsible sexual and reproductive behavior, to be made available to all learners.

The university commits to providing such information and counselling support to its stakeholders, especially the learners through structured efforts, including awareness, counselling, and health services.

All efforts shall be scientifically sound, culturally sensitive, age and gender appropriate and shall respect the autonomy of the individual, with full respect, privacy, and confidentiality.

Scope of Policy:

The policy and the pursuant SOP apply to all Undergraduate and Postgraduate students including interns, doctoral students and Fellows.

Mechanisms:

1. Awareness through guest lectures, seminars, small group discussions, posters, and celebration of days or weeks related to the topic
2. Provision of counselling which could be student-initiated and voluntary, or faculty-initiated when indicated
3. Referral services to psychiatrist, gynecologist, therapist, and regulatory or legal recourse contextual to the case.

Core Principles

- Voluntary participation – students shall be encouraged to avail of the support services, but learner autonomy remains primary tenet.
- Confidentiality – complete confidentiality shall be kept, except in cases where disclosure is required for safety, prevention of harm, or legal compliance.
- Privacy – assigned counselling room shall be used, with register entry being limited to learner details.
- Consent- Any examination, procedure, therapy shall take informed consent

Initiatives:

The university through the Women Development Cell, Family Planning OPD, and departments shall endeavor to undertake of the following:

1. The support shall be provided for all matters related to sexual health such as sexual relationships, the body and sexuality, consent and communications, myths and misconceptions, sexual dysfunction, and safe sexual practices.
2. Reproductive health shall also be included in all efforts, relating to menstrual health and hygiene, puberty and psychosocial challenges, pregnancy –conception, unintended pregnancy, infertility, and common preventable diseases of the genital tract

3. Contraception shall be a major area to be addressed including male and female contraceptive methods, advantages and relative disadvantages of the same, dual protection against pregnancy & Sexually transmitted Infections, and abstinence.
4. Promotion of Counselling services, and the operational framework of the Family Planning OPD shall be done.
5. Awareness and access to prevention and management of sexually transmitted disease – prevention and treatment, including facilities of laboratory, ICTC and ART Centre shall be shared
6. Learnings, counselling and therapy for matters of consent, healthy relationships, prevention of coercion and exploitation, recognition of sexual exploitation. SRH counseling does not replace the institution's formal mechanism for dealing with sexual harassment or sexual violence

Confidentiality and Documentation

Individual counseling records should contain only information necessary for appropriate care. Records should be securely maintained with restricted access. Student information should not be discussed in teaching sessions, WhatsApp groups, social media or other informal forums in an identifiable manner. For teaching purposes, de-identified cases should be used.

Red-Flag Situations Requiring Immediate Referral

Immediate senior/specialist assessment should be considered for suspected sexual abuse, potential of harm to self or others, pregnancy-related emergencies, local pain, bleeding or injury, suspected HIV exposure needing testing, acute or severe psychological distress

Reaffirmation

The institution shall provide an environment in which learners can obtain reliable sexual and reproductive health information and confidential support without stigma or discrimination.

REPORT OF WORLD AIDS DAY

Sr no	TITLE OF ITEM
1	Title and Introduction: World AIDS Day, which falls on December 1 every year, was first observed in 1988 to raise awareness about HIV and AIDS while paying tribute to the victims. AIDS is the last stage of HIV, the human immunodeficiency virus, where the body's immune system is severely impaired. With WHO's aim of eliminating AIDS by 2030, constant efforts are required, starting with advocacy and raising awareness. This year's theme is "Take the Right Path: My Health, My Right!" Who implores global leader and citizens to promote the right to health by tackling the inequalities that hinder progress in the fight to end AIDS. With a focus on health as a fundamental human right, WHO emphasizes the importance of equal access to treatment while addressing the stigma and discrimination that may impede the vision of an AIDS-free world. Educating people about prevention is also integral to achieving this goal. This day also marks the importance of human rights in the fight against AIDS for equal treatment and elimination of stigma. To spread awareness on HIV and AIDS in Society, we have arranged this Presentation by the students to get sensitized and know about HIV and AIDS its Causative agent and Mode of transmission (Myth vs Reality) and Preventive Measures and they will spread the knowledge to their family, friends and Society. The department of physiology DY Patil Medical College celebrated the "World AIDS Day" on 30th November 2024. Power point presentation was done by first MBBS Students at 12.45 PM at Lecture Hall 501 on 5th floor of medical college. Total 6 students participated with their PPTs
